Military Installations

King George

Naval Surface Warfare Center-Dahlgren Division conducts advance research in all system related areas and pursues all scientific disciplines within the development and integration of warfare systems. Located on the banks of the Potomac River, this unique naval installation dates to 1918 and is located on approximately 4,000 acres. What began as a gun-test facility has since evolved and expanded to include numerous scientific and response-force missions serving all branches of the United States armed forces.

Caroline County

Fort A.P. Hill established in 1941, consisting of approximately 76,000 acres, is the Joint Force's premier all-purpose, year-round, training destination. This facility is a training and maneuver center focused on providing realistic joint and combined arms training. All branches of the Armed Forces train on Fort A.P. Hill and the installation has also hosted training from foreign allies. Additionally, Fort A.P. Hill hosted the Boy Scouts of America National Jamboree every 4 years from 1981 thru 2010.

Horse Racing Legends

Reva Ridge

The first Meadow horse born in Caroline County to win the Kentucky Derby and the Belmont Stakes in 1972.

Secretariat

Born at the Meadow in Caroline County, winner of the Triple Crown in 1973 setting race records that still stand today. The Belmont Stakes, final leg of the Triple Crown at 1.5 miles long, was won by 31 lengths—recording the fastest time for any horse in the United States, to cover that distance,...ever.

The Meadow Event Park

Formally the Meadow, has transformed from a horse farm to a multi-purpose venue that is home to the State Fair of Virginia and other notable events. This 331-acre property features original structures—including Secretariat's foaling barn, as well as modern exhibition, conference, wedding, & agriculture event facilities. Proudly, The Meadow Historic District of Caroline County is registered as a Virginia Historic Landmark and placed on the National Register of Historic Places.

Mildred and Richard Loving, Caroline County couple at the center of the unanimous Supreme Court case that ruled Virginia's anti-miscegenation law was unconstitutional on June 12, 1967. Major motion picture released 2016-2017.

DID YOU KNOW...?!

Virginia Civil War Trails Significant Sites located in Caroline County include Bethel Church, Carmel Church, Courthouse Complex, Guinea Station, Milford Station and The Old Star Hotel site.

Virginia Civil War Trails Significant Sites located in King George County include Mathias Point, Machodoc Creek Marina, Cleydael House, and Belle Grove Plantation

Lincoln & Booth

Follow the John Wilkes Booth attempted escape saga through the Counties of King George and Caroline

King George:

John Wilkes Booth and David Harold escaped from Maryland by crossing the Potomac River, coming ashore at Mathias Point. From there, they stopped briefly at Cleydael, continued traveling through the Bell Grove Plantation area, to cross the Rappahannock River into Port Royal.

Caroline County

Stopping in the Town of Port Royal, the pair were directed further south to the Garrett Farm. Federal soldiers traveling north from the Town of Bowling Green to the Garrett Farm, attacked the family's tobacco barn, capturing David Harold, and killing John Wilkes Booth.
